A Letter To Santa

Dear Santa,

Please bring me a trip to the 'Gator Bowl Game to be played in Jacksonville, Fla., January 1, 1954.

I have been a good Auburn child for a long time and have always said I'd like to go to a bowl game if and ever Auburn played in one. Several of your little helpers, namely Shug and his boys, played a wonderful season to make part of my dream come true.

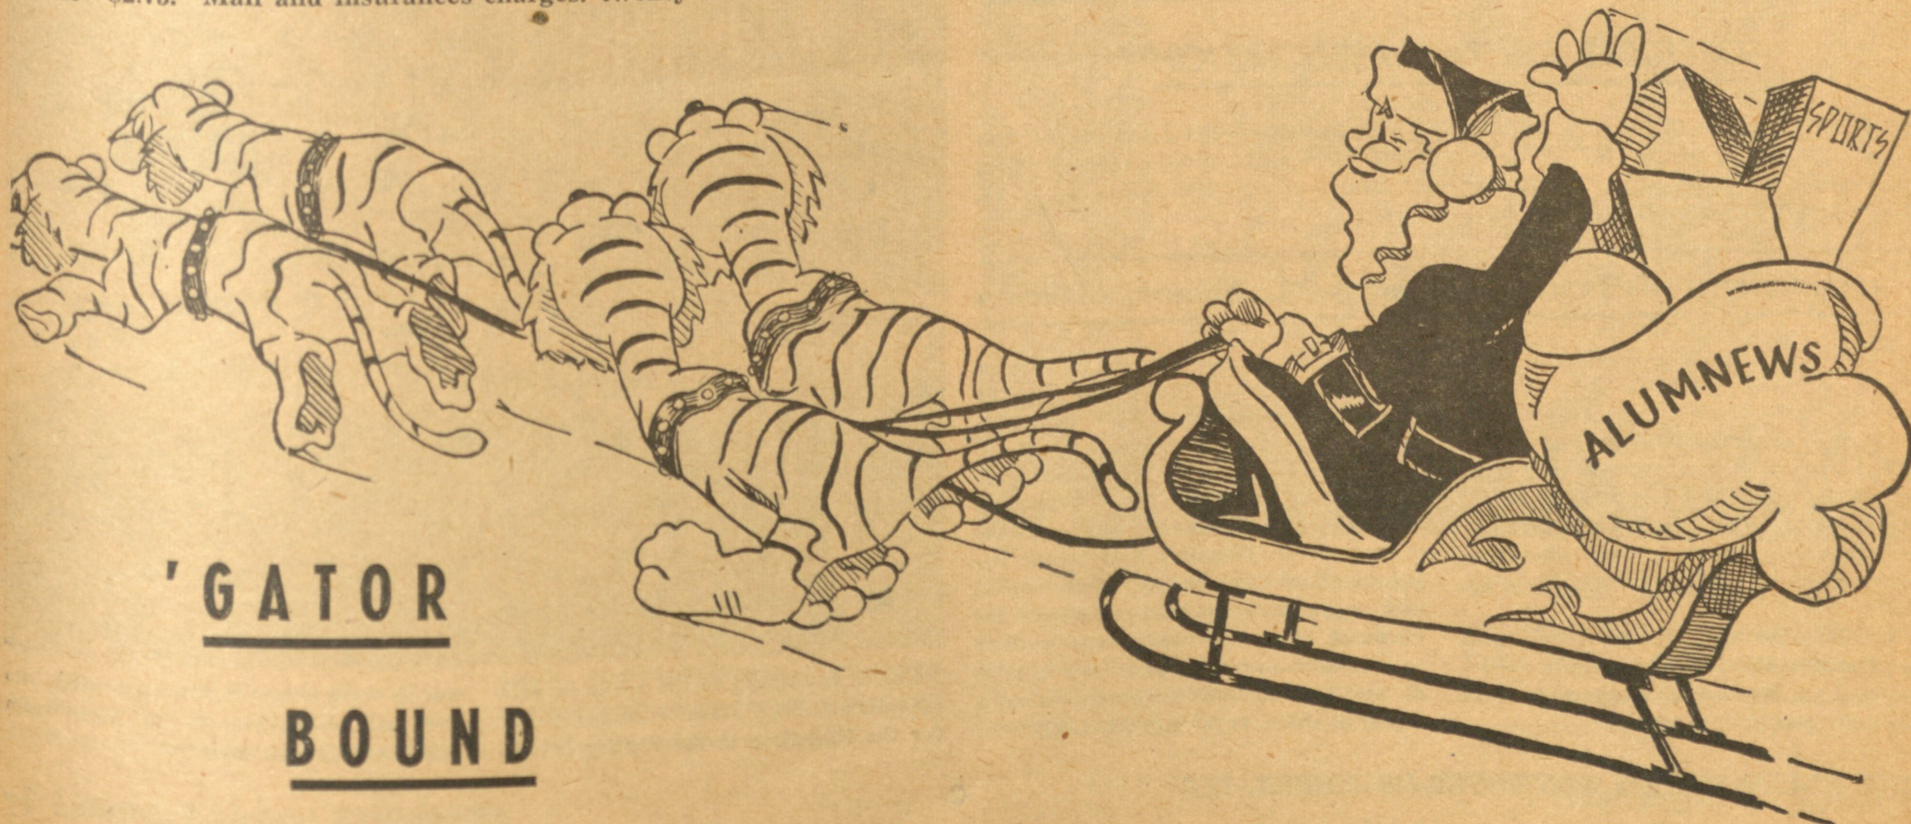

I wanta see the rest of my dream come true, that is, for Auburn to take Texas Tech and for me . . . dear, dear Santa Claus . . . to be there to see them do it!

A Merry Christmas to you and your helpers and don't forget my chimney on Christmas Eve. My stocking will be there, and the big red apple by my stocking will be for you. All I want for myself is a 'Gator Bowl trip, so please don't let me down.

Your good friend,

Johnnie Auburnite

P.S.—Please order my tickets right away, so I can make my plans early.

'GATOR

BOUND

25,500 Visit Village

THE "Loveliest Village" was never quite so lovely!

Naturally, the time in mind is the weekend of Auburn's memorable 1953 Homecoming, gone but certainly not forgotten!

Remember the gala October 30-31 celebration? Here are the highlights:

1) A crushing 16-7 triumph over Florida's strong 'Gators. It brought a proud feeling to the hearts of Auburnites all over the world, and made the post-season bowl scouts sit up and take notice of Shug Jordan's terrific Tigers.

2) Successful and enjoyable reunions of the classes of 1903, 1923, and 1908. Many classmates returned to the Plains to talk over old times with other Auburnites and friends and to drink from the cup of good fellowship.

3) The presentation of the year's new "Miss Homecoming," Joan Davidson, of Columbus, Ga. The lovely winner and her court were introduced at half-time ceremonies.

4) Meeting of the Auburn Alumni Association and the election of officers for the new fiscal year recently begun.

Many other items

THESE were by no means all of the items on the fall's Homecoming menu. Dinners, dances, campus tours, meeting of the API Board of Trustees, and many other traditional festivities were enjoyed by the largest crowd ever to swell Auburn's Cliff Hare Stadium—more than 25,000.

Fraternity decorations provided an unusually fine treat for spectators. Pi Kappa Alpha won first place in the contest, with Pi Kappa Phi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon rating second and third, respectively.

Pearson re-elected

RE-ELECTED president of the Auburn Alumni Association was Clyde C. Pearson, '26, Montgomery architect who has served the association in that capacity for the past year.

Named to two-year terms on the executive committee by the group were W. Cameron Mitchell, '35, Hampton, Ga., T. A. "Bo" Russell, '39, Birmingham, and Rex Sikes, '31, Luverne.

Mr. Mitchell is vice-president and treasurer of the Southern States Equipment Corporation. A former All-SEC tackle and Auburn captain, Mr. Russell is manager of the Group Department, Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. Mr. Sikes, a vice-president of the association during

Mitchell, '35

1952, is vice-president of the Luverne Motor Company.

A life member of the Alumni Association, Mr. Mitchell is a vice-president of the Atlanta Auburn Club. Mr. Russell has headed the Jefferson County Auburn Club and is 1953 Monday Morning Quarterback Club Captain there. Mr. Sikes was recently named to the Alabama Educational Television Commission.

Membership increase

AN INCREASE in membership of the Alumni Association to 4,105 from the 1952 membership of 3,294 was cited in President Pearson's annual report to members. He also expressed deep appreciation for "the work of our very efficient, hard-working and likeable alumni secretary, Joe Sarver, '37."

Pearson's report cited the association's progress of the past year as a challenge for further progress during the coming year. API President Ralph Draughon welcomed the members of the association in a short message at the beginning of the meeting.

The annual meeting of the college Board of Trustees was held on Friday, October 30. President Draughon made his report to the board, and accomplishments during the past year were discussed. The board passed a resolution commending Coach Ralph Jordan and the football team for success so far this season.

Miss Robinson, '99

ALUMNI of recent years would have enjoyed a Homecoming chat with one of the "youngsters" who returned to the Village, Miss Mary Evelyn Robinson, '99.

A retired Birmingham school teacher, Miss Mary joined the writer in a most entertaining and enlightening conversation, in which she told of "the good old days" when students "read and studied for amusement." "Boys were not allowed out except on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights back in the last century," she recalled.

"And in those days," she added, "there were no electric lights on the campus except in Langdon Hall, no theaters, no cars, no airplanes, and no radios."

Freeman rambles against Gators

Thousands enjoyed the 1953 celebration

Homecoming In Pictures

A GRAND time was had by all who attended the 1953 Homecoming, but for the members of the three reunion classes it seemed even finer. Here are only a few of the '28 classmates who were present for the dinner held by the class to begin the weekend's activities.

ENJOYING the Friday night dinner held by the class during the 1953 Homecoming are several members of the Class of 1928, and their wives and friends. An unusually large delegation of old classmates returned to renew acquaintances, and enjoy one of the most colorful Homecomings in the history of API. Next year the Class of 1929 will have its 25th reunion.

GETTING together to discuss the many changes that have taken place on the Plains during the years since they received their sheepskins are W. W. Hill, '97, Auburn; George Blois Hill, '03, Sylacauga; Miss Mary Evelyn Robinson, '99, Birmingham; Henry Hiden, Jr., '03, Mobile, and J. C. Thomason, '95, Blue Ridge, Ga. As did many old friends, these enjoyed the busy festivities of the three days as much as any previous Homecoming.

LISTENING attentively to Miss Mary Evelyn Robinson, '99, Birmingham, tell about how Auburn was before the turn of the century are George Blois Hill, '03, Sylacauga, and Henry Hiden, Jr., '03, Mobile. All agreed that this was one of the finest Auburn Homecomings they had ever attended, and it was hinted that the 16-7 Tiger victory over Florida had not a little to do with the formation of this opinion among all alumni.

THIS year's Homecoming was not only a time for gathering together among alumni, but of families as well. Shown here are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hiden, Jr., '03, of Mobile, and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson M. Snow, '34, of Columbus, Ga. Mrs. Snow is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Hiden, while Hiden and Snow are both alumni of Auburn. This photograph was taken during a Saturday morning coffee session in Student Center, where a large number of alumni gathered to reminisce prior to the football game.

TAKING time out from all the festivities of Homecoming weekend to chat about how things used to be are W. C. "Red" Sugg, '31, Atlanta, former president of the Alumni Association; Dr. Ralph B. Draughon, API President; General Robert E. Noble, '90, Anniston, the oldest alumnus present at the celebration; and Frank Malone, '28, of Atlanta, also a former president of the Auburn Alumni Association.

More than 40 return home for

Successful '08 Reunion

COMING to Auburn from points as far away as New Mexico and Texas, 40-odd members of Auburn's class of 1908 enjoyed a class reunion during the weekend of the recent Homecoming celebration on the Plains.

Forty-five years were reviewed in two days as a full program of events kept the returning alumni of '08 stepping lively. However, to the delight of the classmates, their wives and friends, most of the items on the two-day agenda were arranged so that members would have ample opportunity to reminiscence.

Walker toastmaster

OPELIKA attorney J. A. Walker, who continued on the Auburn faculty for two years after completing post graduate work at API, served as toastmaster of the group.

Another member of the class from nearby Opelika was recognized as the Auburnite who journeyed the shortest distance to attend the reunion. He was Orrin Brown, banker, who won the distinction from Mr. Walker by a margin of several blocks.

From New Mexico

J. L. ESSLINGER of New Mexico made the longest trip to meet his old classmates in the 1953 reunion. It was a time of renewing old friendships and reviewing happenings over the past years for the fellow Plainsmen.

The climax of the entire Homecoming program for the '08 group was, as with all of the other 25,000 spectators present, the football game in Cliff Hare Stadium Saturday afternoon. As Coach Shug Jordan and his terrible Tigers romped and stomped the Florida Gators, these classmates enjoyed the cheering with all the rest.

As for the thousands of other alumni who returned "home" to participate in

November-December Issue

In order to give Auburn alumni a complete picture of the Tiger football situation early in December, The Alumnews has combined its November and December issues into one, this news-packed 16-page edition. The January issue will be released on the regular schedule, carrying a full report on recent "activities" which just might, by pure chance, contain an element of interest to sons and daughters of the War Eagle. And as the Yuletide season nears, your Executive Secretary, the staff of the Alumni Association, and the editor wish for every Auburnite a very Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

Auburn Club News

Tri-Cities

AT a recent meeting of the Tri-Cities Auburn Club, Stanford A. Hardin, '31 was elected president of the group for the year now in progress.

Ray Martin, '47, G. W. "Ripper" Williams, '34, and Hugh Lipsey were named vice-presidents of the club. Other officers include Frank G. Crow, '26, secretary, and J. H. "Red" McClanahan, '43, treasurer.

Mr. Hardin graduated from Auburn with a degree in mechanical engineering. He was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and while on the campus he organized and directed the Auburn Knights orchestra. He is a registered professional engineer in Alabama and in the mechanical and chemical consulting field.

Stanford A. Hardin, '31

Chemical engineer

ABIE Hardin has served on the chemical engineering technical staff of the Tennessee Valley Authority since 1933, and is credited with a major part in the development of the Authority's chemical plant at Wilson Dam.

Nationwide recognition came as a result of his invention and design of the catenary type electric phosphate smelting furnace, one of which is the largest, operating in the phosphate industry at the present time.

Atlanta

NEW officers of the Atlanta Auburn Club are Jerry Fowler, '20, president; Morris A. Hall, '39, W. Cam Mitchell,

'35, and Kelly Mosley, '24, vice-presidents; and Thorne Winter, '30 secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Fowler has been active in the work of the Atlanta club for several years, and is city salesman with the Upjohn Company in Atlanta.

Opelika

MEMBERS of the Opelika Auburn Club recently met, naming their new officers for the current fiscal year. Buddy Hicks, '43, was selected president.

Yetta G. Samford, Jr., '47, and Clement Torbert, '27, were elected vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.

Middle Tennessee

SIXTY alumni, their wives and friends, attended the meeting November 6 of the Middle Tennessee Auburn Club, held at the home of M. H. Nabors, '26.

The group viewed the 1953 Mississippi versus Auburn grid game, and held the election of new officers. Cleve Brown, '35, was elected to serve as president of the club.

Other officers include Ed Prather, '47, and Dr. Jackson Sibley, '46, vice-presidents; M. C. LaGrone, '51, treasurer; George Humphreys, '51, secretary; Cecil Stokes, '28, Joe Ledbetter, '34, Lewis Johnson, '49, M. H. Nabors, '26, and Charles M. Hudson, '07, directors.

Washington, D.C.

THE Auburn Club of Washington, D.C., had one of its largest and most successful gatherings recently in the exhibit room of the Goodrich Tire and Rubber Co.

Officers named for the year were Roger B. McWhorter, '09, president; Harold Williams, '33, vice-president; Hurdie H. Burk, Jr., '51, secretary-treasurer; Col. B. D. Godbold, '36, and John A. Earnest, '43, members of the executive committee. Guest speaker at the meeting was alumni Executive Secretary Joe Sarver, '37.

Miami

THIRTY-EIGHT alumni, their wives and friends, attended a recent meeting of the Miami Auburn Club. William H. Cole, '49, was elected to the post of president by those present.

Other officers named were Carl L. Owen, Jr., '48, vice-president; William T. McIlwain, '25, secretary, and Mrs.

'WAR EAGLE!'

Alex R. Garrett, '27; Lt. John C. Lindsey, '44. (Second row) Lt. E. M. Swindle, '47; Ellis Bullock, who has returned and has resumed his studies at Auburn; Maj. Barna C. Pope, Jr., '38; Maj. Milton G. Swearengin, '49; Lt. Col. Jack E. Winslett, '20; Lt. James Hern; Lt. Edwin P. Vaiden, Jr., '51. Lt. Vaiden reports the Club is making fine progress.

Mildred Labuzan Locke, '26, treasurer. Plans were made for other meetings to be held in the near future.

Madison County

A LARGE crowd was on hand November 23 at the City Council Room in Huntsville, Ala., for the meeting of the Madison County Auburn Club. William A. Estes, '46, president of the club, presided, and the group enjoyed a showing of the film of the Ole Miss-Auburn game in which the Tigers bowled over the Rebels, 13-0.

Winston-Marion

THE Winston-Marion Auburn Club met recently to join in fellowship with fellow Auburnites and elect the club's new officers.

John L. Wilson, '46, Hackleburg, was elected to guide the club's activities as president, and James H. Whitt, '48, Haleyville, Willie Tucker, '31, Winfield, and John B. Shirey, '23, were named vice-presidents. Dorothy McNutt, '48, was elected secretary-treasurer.

Montgomery

AUBURN'S conquest of Georgia, 39-18, was the highlight of a meeting of the Montgomery County Auburn Club on November 23, as the group viewed the film of the Tiger victory.

A large crowd of alumni, wives and friends, were present at the gathering, held in the Whitley Hotel in Montgomery.

Your club's news

IF YOUR club's news is not included in this issue of The Alumnews, please notify the correspondent of your club to send in future news of your club's activities.

The Alumnews would like for every Auburn Club to keep your Association posted on the latest news with your club and its members. Pictures and noteworthy items about officers or other members of the clubs would be welcomed by The Alumnews. Don't neglect to send in that news early for the January issue.

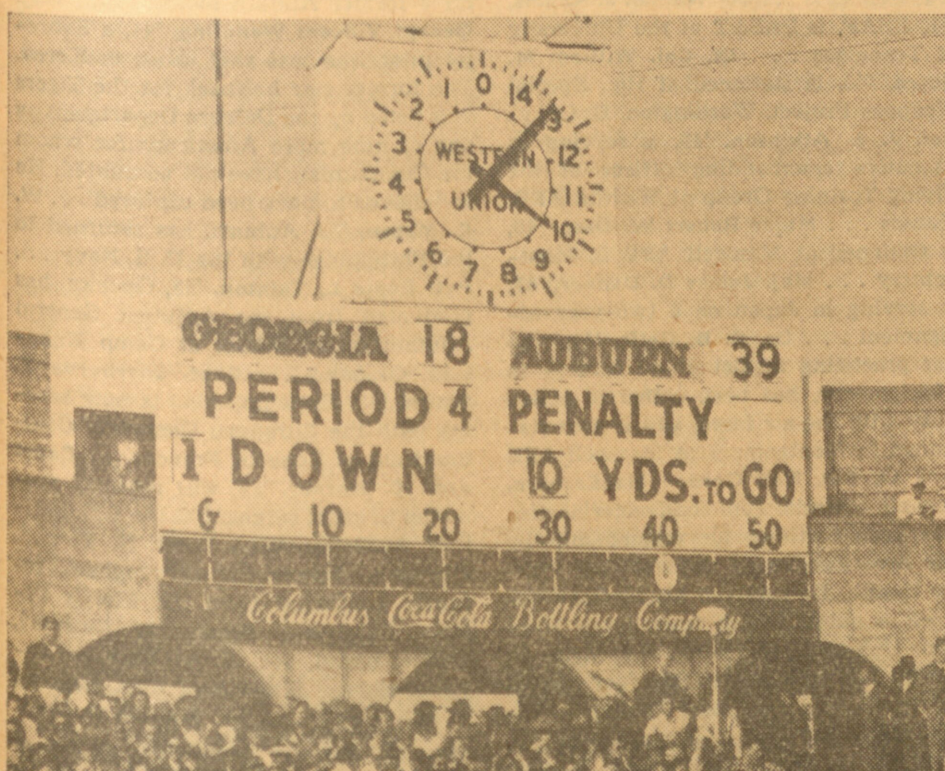

Back for a gala Homecoming

TALKING over the next day's prospects at an Open House celebration for all alumni on Friday night are Dr. B. F.

Thomas, '15, Auburn; Wallace McKinney, '25, Columbus, Ga., and W. C. Regan, '27, Mobile.

Auburn's Tom Rives, '16 Named To New Post

AUBURN'S retired Brig. Gen. Tom C. Rives, '16, has been named manager of a new laboratories department recently established by the General Electric Electronics Division in Syracuse, N. Y.

Rives' headquarters for the new department are at Electronics Park in Syracuse. The new department will comprise two presently operating research and development facilities of the division, the Electronics Laboratory at Syracuse, and the Advanced Electronics

Gen. Tom C. Rives, '16

Center at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y. Together they employ nearly 500 persons, including 300 engineers and scientists.

The Electronics Laboratory is engaged in advanced development and investigations in the broad field of electronics, both civilian and military, including such projects as transistors and other semi-conductor devices, radar, color television, electronic computers, video tape recording and automatic assembly machines.

GEN. Rives joined General Electric at Syracuse in 1950, where he was manager of technical military liaison at the time of his latest appointment.

A native of Montgomery, Ala., Rives graduated from API in 1916, earned the professional degree of electrical engineer at Auburn in 1917, and received his M.S. degree from Yale University in 1927.

For the year ending August 31, 1953

1953 Active Membership

ON the following pages The Alumnews lists the names of all active members of the Auburn Alumni Association for the fiscal year 1953, ending August 31.

For your loyal support, the Association wishes to express its gratitude, for without the combined efforts and contributions of all, we could not have made the progress that we did make during the past fiscal year. To each and every active member, we say "Thanks!"

All alumni who haven't yet paid their 1954 dues are urged to do so as soon as possible. May even greater progress be made in the months ahead.

Names in bold face type are life members. An asterick (*) preceding a name indicates death.
